Peggy Dettwiler is Professor of Music and Director of Choral Activities at Mansfield University. She holds the Doctor of Musical Arts Degree from the Eastman School of Music, a Master of Music Degree in Choral Conducting from the University of Texas at San Antonio and a Master of Music Degree in Music Education from the University of Wisconsin in Madison. In 2010, Dr. Dettwiler received the Elaine Brown Award for Choral Excellence from the Pennsylvania Chapter of the American Choral Directors Association, and she placed second in 2011 and 2013 for the American Prize for Choral Conductors at the College/University level.

Dettwiler has served as a guest conductor and lecturer throughout the country and has given presentations at numerous NAfME and ACDA Conventions. She has produced two DVDs, one entitled, "Developing a Vocal Color Palette for Various Choral Styles" and the second, "Sing in Style." Dettwiler made her conducting debut in Carnegie Hall in 2014 and presented an interest session at the World Choral Symposium in Seoul, Korea. In 2015, Dettwiler received the Presidential Coin for Excellence from General Francis Hendricks, President of Mansfield University, and was designated "Honored Artist of the American Prize." In 2016, she served on the jury for the World Choir Games in Sochi, Russia, and was one of ten conductors from seven countries, who participated in the course, CONDUCTING 21C: Musical Leadership for a New Century, held in Stockholm, Sweden. Dettwiler is Past President of the Eastern Region of the American Choral Directors Association.

Mansfield University of Commonwealth University Pennsylvania is beautifully positioned in the mountains of north central Pennsylvania amid one of the best outdoor sports and recreations spots in the country, surrounded by thousands of acres of Pennsylvania State Game Lands, pristine lakes, and breathtaking mountain views. As a member of the PA State System of Higher Education, Mansfield University exemplifies academic rigor and affordability. And its small size, about 1800 students, promotes an average class size of 24 and a 1:15 faculty student ratio. In January of 2015, Mansfield University was accepted as Pennsylvania's only member of the Council of Public Liberal Arts Colleges and Universities (COPLAC.) Recently, MU was listed among the Colleges of Distinction as one of 100 best values for colleges.

Founded in 1857, Mansfield was the first state institution to grant a certificate to teach music and has a long, rich tradition of musical excellence. The Music Department is located in the Will George Butler Center, which contains the Steadman Theatre, two large rehearsal halls, fifty-five practice rooms, music faculty studios, and state-of-the art technology facilities. The Music Department is staffed by 22 faculty members with degrees from some of the most prestigious music schools in the country. The department enrolls about 100 music majors and offers Bachelor of Music degrees in Music Education, Elective Studies in Business, Emphasis in Music Technology, Performance, and the Bachelor of Arts in Music and is accredited by the National Association of Schools of Music (NASM).
